Honored Class Enjoys Fellowship

The 1945 Elba High School Graduation Class reunited this past weekend to participate in the annual homecoming activities. The reunion, got off to a great start with the members joining in the parade. They were bused to the parade route and returned to the home economics department where a Tea and Reception was held in their honor. Mrs. Helen McCullough and Mrs. Mary Young directed these festivities. Afterwards the class members along with their husbands and wives met at the Elba Country Club for a dinner banquet. Mr. Elmer Taylor gave the invocation and Mr. Lamar Foley delivered the welcome. Speaker for the occasion was class member, Nina English Herring of Montgomery. Introductions were made by class president, Peggy Blue DeVane. Twenty-four class members attended. Following the class's attendance at the homecoming ballgame where they were recognized and honored, a tea was held in the home of class member, Fred Harper, Jr. The tea and punch services were presided over by Mrs. John Harper and Mrs. Martha

Holley Has High Hopes For Bill

Representative Jimmy Holley said this week there is a strong chance his bill placing all county officials on a salary rather than the fee system will pass the legislature during this special session. The bill passed the House on schedule and due to the delay in passing the education budget, it was passed out of committee in the Senate after a delay caused by an oversight. Holley said he expected the bill to pass if the Senate passed any local legislation. The bills are actually constitutional amendments and must be voted on by the entire state. There is a clause in the bill assuring the other people of Alabama and if the bill is not approved in Coffee County, it will not become law. With this type wording, most people ignore voting on the amendment or vote yes. Most statewide newspapers recommend that voters let local

Natural Gas Prices To Increase

Confronted by a 22 percent jump in the cost of the natural gas it distributes, the Southeast Alabama Gas District has raised its own general service rates an average of eight to nine percent. New rates, applicable to all domestic customers of the big utility, will be effective on all gas consumption reflected by meter readings after November 20, 1975, according to J. Smith, manager. "We are always reluctant to increase our rates," Smith said. "We have announced very few rate increases in our 20 years of operation, and we have made each increase as small as possible, consistent with the District's obligations to its customers and bondholders." An advertisement elsewhere in this issue of THE ELBA CLIPPER sets out pre- and post-November 20 rates. Representative increases: On 8,000 cubic feet per month, the bill goes from $18.63 to $20.17. On 30,000 cubic feet, the increase is from $55.63 to $61.57. There will be no increase in the minimum bill (up to 300 cubic feet per month), which remains at $1.85. In discussing the new rates from his office in Andalusia, Smith reminded Gas District customers that they are expected to mail their monthly payments to their "home" District office -- the office nearest their gas meters. "We have been getting a good many checks in Andalusia," he explained, "which should have been addressed to branch offices. This puts an extra burden on our Andalusia employees, and delays proper credit to the customer's account."

Band Takes Top Honors

The Elba Tiger Marching Band was top band in the marching contest in Enterprise last Saturday night. Above photo was snapped moments after representatives of the band heard the announcement and receiving their trophies. Watch The Elba Clipper next week for a pictorial feature story on the Elba band, including action shots of the band during their award winning performance, all made by your ever present Elba Clipper photographers.

Deputy Wrecks At Wreck

Deputy Sheriff Don Rayford landed in a pasture last Friday afternoon when he left the wet road to avoid piling into a two-car accident near Victoria. A minor two-car accident involving cars driven by Eddie Flowers and Billy White caused about $600 damage to the two cars. Judy and Billy White were taken to Elba General Hospital by the Elba Rescue Squad and treated for minor injuries, according to officers at the scene. State troopers on the scene said "Rayford's excellent driving was the only thing that kept him from hitting the other vehicles." Rayford came up on the scene as he topped the crest of a hill. The rain-slick pavement made it impossible for him to stop, and he left the road to avoid hitting the others. The car spun around several times, went down an embankment and stopped 30 feet off the highway. (Rayford will surely take some ribbing from those who notice the drive education car in the background of the picture.)

Five Opp Youths Hurt

Five Opp teenagers escaped serious injury last Thursday night when their late model Oldsmobile overturned on rain slick pavement. The accident happened on the Curran cut-off about 8:30 p.m. Three of the youths were taken to the Elba General Hospital by the Elba Rescue Squad, treated and released. They were Lennie Spencer, age 16, the driver; Jimmy Gibson, and Mike Myers, both 19. The other two were unharmed. Trooper R. W. Whitworth investigated the accident.

November Events To See In Alabama

The yearly Riverfront Market Day will be held in Selma, Alabama on Saturday, November 22, and 30,000 people are expected to attend. This event is featured in the October issue of NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC. The world of yesteryear, when the riverboat was the center of the social and economic worlds of many people, will return to the only remaining ante-bellum business district in the United States. Guests will see the old Selma brought back to life as sidewalk artists, musicians, food vendors and actors show off their talents. With the Dixieland Jazz as the background, there will be antiques, dried flowers, homemade quilts, cane-weaving, sidewalk painting, art and hundreds of other items being sold right on the street. In the food line there will be barbecue, cake, corn on the cob, shrimp, chicken and more. A huge parade, beginning at 7:30 a.m., will pass through the middle of town, and finish up in the Market on the riverbank. It will include bands from across the state, as well as various floats. Old cars and horse-drawn buggies will carry Southern Belles as a special attraction in the parade. This day is designed to bring about the restoration of the beautiful old buildings on the now famous Water Avenue. Selma's one-time finest hotel is just one of the buildings receiving fresh coats of paint and shining up for the Market Day. Also, the second annual Alabama Fall River Cruise will make its way to Selma from Montgomery on the 22nd of November. As they near Selma, the flotilla will be met by a team of water skiers who will stage an exhibition of their special skills. Arriving in the river city, the fleet will dock and travelers will attend a gala reception as guests of the Market Day. The Capital City Jaycees are sponsoring the 150-mile round trip from Montgomery to Selma and back, and they issue invitations to all boaters in Alabama to join the flotilla. Also, there will be a pre-voyage get-together and social hour to be held in Montgomery on Friday evening, November 21. Any river-worthy power boat, according to the sponsoring Jaycees, is eligible to join the cruise, which will be monitored by the Alabama Water Safety Patrol. The Coast Guard Auxiliary will handle launching and docking procedures. Also on hand will be members of the Alabama Rescue Squad and the Alabama Marine Police. The cruise will depart Montgomery at 8:00 a.m., and will pass many historic spots along the way. The NAACP To Meet Next Wednesday The NAACP will have a meeting on Wednesday, November 13, at 7:30 p.m. at the Masonic Lodge in the Coppinville Community Enterprise. The meeting is for the purpose of recruiting new members, and everyone interested is urged to attend.

Courthouse To Be Open Saturday

Saturday, November 15, is the deadline for purchasing new 1976 car and truck tags. For the convenience of Coffee County citizens who work and have not purchased their new tags, the offices of the Courthouse will be open Saturday in both Elba and Enterprise. The Tax Assessor, Tax Collector and Probate Judge will remain open Saturday; however, not enough publicity was given this and very few people handled themselves of the services.

Big Lemon Shown Off

This big lemon was grown by Al Holmes, left, of Orlando, Florida. He presented the big lemon to his father-in-law, Mr. Sam Morris, of Rt. 3, Elba, because Morris' picture was in THE ELBA CLIPPER several months ago with a large eggplant he had grown in his Coffee County garden. The double-size lemon is common for one particular tree in his Merritt Island grove, said Holmes. Morris told this newspaper he had worked in the area seventeen years himself, and had never seen such a large lemon.

Senior Citizens Visit Westville

The Sr. citizens of Elba and Enterprise joined together for an enjoyable trip to the town of Westville, near Lumpkin, Georgia, last Friday, November 7. This was a sponsored tour of the Human Resource Centers in Elba and Enterprise, and St. Paul Methodist Church in Enterprise. As the town of Westville is a historic town being restored to the setting of the 1850's, it brought back memories of days gone by to the group. Those from Elba who made the trip were: Mrs. Gladys Tucker, Mrs. Odie Benbow, Mrs. Lillie Johnson, Mrs. Mary King, Mrs. Mattie Maude Moore, Mrs. Nettie Phillips, Mrs. Susie Lee, Mrs. Beattie Sasser, Mrs. Marie Henderson, Mrs. Jeanie Crook, Mrs. Ollie Lowery, Mrs. Clidie B. Gossby. Staff members from Elba were: Mrs. Miriam Farris, Mrs. Addie Lou Taylor and Mrs. Sarah Gibson.

Rescue Squad Learns Equipment

Members of the Elba Rescue Squad watch Corner Ray Henderson demonstrate the "Jaws Of Life" as it rips apart an old automobile. The expensive machine is used by the rescue squad to free wreck victims who are pinned in their automobiles. The machine is part of the continuing education for members of the squad.

POOR ORIGINAL

BRAINSTORMS

With Ferrin Cox

Last week was a busy week around Elba. It seems I was going to something all day and all night during the entire week. For whatever all the others were worth, Friday and Saturday nights turned out wonderful. Never have I seen a high school football game start so hot and turn into such a spectacular game. Then Saturday night the rain-drenched crowd came alive when the Elba band marched onto the field at the Marching Contest in Enterprise. The Elba band was competing in a class with larger schools (because they wanted a real challenge). Well, they met their challenge and got more superior ratings than any other band present! The band received a perfect score in every class, from every judge.

If my entire family weren't wrapped up in getting out a paper each week, I believe we would watch on and tour the world with Mr. and Mrs. James Ross Poole. Now, Perry Jean is an airline stewardess and gets special rates from all the airlines for her and her husband. Recently they just took off and spent a weekend in Rome! After bumping around with the Italians for a couple of days, they jumped on another fancy jet and returned to Elba and life as usual.

I finally found a man who says for sure he will be running for city council next year. I must hold his name for a while, but he says it is definite. When asked which of the incumbents he would oppose, the answer was, "I will qualify and let them run against me." He added some comments about the incumbents being his friends, but felt some things are being left undone.

Uncle Charlie Porter has long been a person of interest to readers of THE ELBA CLIPPER, who have followed him in real life and through the pages of this newspaper for years. As time goes on, his fame spreads. Recently, he held a Troy State alumni professor spell-bound all morning, and a history graduate student from Birmingham Southern gazed to his seat all afternoon, telling things that crossed his mind. Sometime during all this a senior at Vanderbilt University found Uncle Charlie and snapped a photo that was used in the Vanderbilt alumni magazine. Each time we take one of these people to see the elderly Negro man, he never fails to call me boy that prints THE ELBA CLIPPER, ask about my children, George Wallace and "that lady who used to own the paper, who she didn't like George Wallace."

Christmas time is coming and this is the traditional time for spending more money. Several months ago a letter was written to Ann Landers about people who don't support their hometown stores, but always ask them for "donations" to their stores. The problem is not unique to Elba apparently. Here is the letter and the answer she gave - I would like to hear some comments from those guilty.

Dear Ann Landers: I'd like to ask the American people a few questions. It's a matter of economic survival to me, as well as millions of other "little people" who have small stores. Who do you ask to cash your checks? Who do you ask for credit when things are tight? Who do you ask to support your organizations, yearbooks and programs? Who do you ask for contributions for your church suppers, raffish, etc? Who do you call after hours when you need a specialist? Who do you ask to put up your posters for special events? It's your local, hometown small businessman. After all, he's your friend, your neighbor, your community.

But when you want to make a purchase, how often do you go to his place and business and to a clerk to buy something you might save a few cents, without giving your local merchant a chance or even comparing his prices? We are competitive with the biggest stores price-wise, and our services are often better. But we can't survive much longer. When we go, you'll miss us.

TOO MANY TO NAME

Dear Tom Many: Your letter reflects one of the major social and economic problems of our times. It's becoming more and more difficult for small, independent businessmen to survive. I wish I knew the answer.

AUDREY WILLIAMS: IN THE SHADOW OF A LEGEND. It is a heavy burden, the keen disappointment of a life unfulfilled that I write these lines. A true friend from Audrey Williams I've never had. Audrey who disappeared on occasions, as if she were sometimes dead, we still remained friends until the end.

It goes back a long way. I can remember Hank, Sr. playing for my brother James when he ran for governor and he was elected in 1946. There was Audrey - with the man she loved until the day she died.

Even after his death she never stopped loving him. Lanky, talented, song-writing, singing, son-of-a-gun who became a legend in his own time. It was reported, and I'm sure it's true that at the time of his death he had over 50 songs which were unpublished.

There was a beautiful but hectic life. When the Montgomery troubadour wrote songs, the Banks, Alabama, wife helped promote them. I saw it that they got recorded and made all the business arrangements. In her prime Audrey Williams came about the most respected businesswoman on the Nashville scene.

As Hank's popularity grew, she was there by his side - encouraging, loving and above all, with a sense of dedicated loyalty. That Alabama boy used to play "The WFA Blues" for my late brother-in-law, Ross Clark. Ross would give him $2.00 and Hank never failed to make a regular weekly appearance.

Thus, the legend began. And Audrey stood in the shadow of that legend. One of Hank Sr.'s awards was entitled "Beyond the Sunset." It was a prophetic ballad which went like this: "Beyond the Sunset, Oh Blissful Morning - When With Our Savior, Heaven Is our home, the wonderful world which lies 'Beyond the Sunset'."

That melody has come! Bob Harrington, "The Chaplain of Bourbon Street" read the song at her funeral. He, too, was a personal friend. He did not go wanting.

After Hank Sr.'s untimely death in West Virginia in 1952, Audrey took up the role of widow and raised her two children, Lyriccia, a daughter from a previous marriage, and Hank, Jr. who is an unfailing mother and a no-nonsense businesswoman.

Gold records poured in from everywhere. Who could forget such memorable songs like "Lovesick Blues," "Honky Tonk Blues," "Why Don't You Love Me," "Wedding Bells," "Lost Highway," "Lonesome Whistle," "May You Be Alone," "Crazy Heart," "Jambalaya," and the immortal "Cold Cold Heart." Don't forget the unforgettable "You Cheatin' Heart!"

The last song on and on. After an early morning service at Troy last Friday, Audrey was returned to Montgomery where hundreds of friends and relatives saw her

HOMECOMING AT EHS

Homecoming at EHS was observed Friday, November 7. The activities began at 8:00 Friday morning when Lisa Sharpless was crowned homecoming queen. Honored as homecoming attendants were Janet Brown, Chris Walker, and Sharon Cook.

The parade began at 2:15 as did the rally. The entire stretched for over a mile. Float winners were announced as follows: 1st place went to the Raiders Little League football team, 2nd place was awarded to the Sophomore Class and the 8th grade won 3rd place.

LONG LOST LOVES

This week we will cover some more LONG LOST LOVES' lives in this edition of the EHS news. There are so many of these people around it is gonna be hard to cover all of them, but we'll try!

Here are some more heart breakers:

Charlotte Allen: Well this girl is really experienced at the art as she has been messing around with that Steve Sagerton fellow for quite a while. The problem is he attends Z.C. and she attends E.H.S. (a popular problem). Although she is all smiles at school, she can't hardly wait to get home to see "eager" Steve. And, if by chance you ever journey to one of Z.C. ballgames, you will more than likely see this smiling face around some newsworthy see, her fellow, Kenny, is at least 21 miles from here. Poor Lynne! She is really "less" a "Sharp" asset during the week. But, who knows, maybe someday he'll be living very close by for Lynne. Good luck, Lynne, with this future adrener.

Melissa McCollough: Well, now here's the Mother of experience with this art. You know she always is mixed up with somebody away from school. Boy, she's got her a fine one! Melissa's always talking and acting like she is having a great time, but really and truly, she is missing that Z.C. grad, Jackie Dowling. You see she has a heavy case of the most popular problem around here, too.

Lynne Webber: Yep, she's got it too! Boy have we ever got a problem with this kid! You

Any way my most recent worry is that of the fact that I don't have much more time left in good old EHS!!

You see, I am graduating in December, so I have only about 7 more weeks left in school.

All the time, people are talking about how much they hate school, but once they get to the point where they don't have but a little bit of time left, they realize how much this school and all these great teachers mean to them.

So, come on people and live it up! Make the best of what you have left an EHS!! Who knows, maybe you'll find your classes a little more interesting in you think on terms of what it's going to be like after you get out.

Remember when "hippie" meant big in the hips, and a "trip" involved travel in cars, planes & ships? When "pot" was a vessel for cooking things and "hooked" was what grandmother's rug might have been? When "lit" was a verb that meant mend or repair, and "be-in" meant simply existing somewhere? When "beat" meant well-organized, a scene was a rude thing to do? Words once so sensible, sober, and serious, are now the "frank" scene, like psychedelious. It's "Groovy, Man," have been what you took for a cough? When "dig" meant to shovel and spade in the dirt, and "put-on" was what you did with a shirt? When "tough" described meat too yielding to chew, and "make

John Hancock was a merchant and revolutionary leader, and the first signer of the Declaration of Independence. He graduated from Harvard and entered the shipping trade, and later became a partner in the leading Boston Mercantile House of Thomas Hancock & Co., and its head in 1784. He took part in the protest against the Stamp Act. He was elected president of Mass. Provincial Congress for two terms. He was unable to serve the second term because of illness. However, he did preside over the Mass. convention to ratify the federal constitution. He also served as governor of Mass. for nine terms.

Then the Elba Tigers went to work and really entertained all those tiger fans with a fantastic game against the Troy Trojans.

To climax Homecoming 1975, "Sunstorm" from Montgomery played as students and alumni danced with the excitement of another EHS Homecoming and ended at 5:30 Friday afternoon at the Elba Country Club.

Way Down The River
Well a way down the river where the sun don't show, There old roosters don't crow. The sun is a shining and the wind is a blowing, but They ole roosters still ain't a crowing.
They cackle all day and sleep all night.
They'll sing you a song that'll make you uplight.

NEWS from your PHARMACIST

KRIS SCARBOROUGH
Someone has said it is better to pulverize a tablet, or open a capsule and place the contents on the tongue and take with half a glass of water. This, they say, eliminates the concentration of the medicine, and helps avoid the possibility of heartburn, nausea and the like.

The objection to this method of taking tablets and capsules is the occasional unpleasant taste of the medicine. However, the medication is prepared to be swallowed whole, and either way you prefer to take the tablet, it is one of the great miracles of the century, bringing health to millions throughout the world.

Rebel To Remember
What qualities describe a person not easily forgotten? Vivacious personality, strong character, pleasing disposition, and intelligence are some answers to that question and our week's "Rebel to Remember" certainly has these and many more. Her name is Anita Spear and she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Wright of Rt. One, Jack.

Since Anita possesses these qualities, it's only natural that she is an asset to her Senior class and her school. She is treasurer of the senior class, secretary of the Pep Club, historian for P.H.A., and business manager and copy editor for the yearbook.

To top it all off, she's sweet and dependable!

Tigers End Season At 5-5

Elba's thrilling 28-27 homecoming win over Troy last week ended the Tigers' season, and left the locals with a 5-5 record. A 5-5 record is certainly nothing to brag about but when you consider that the Tigers got off to a 1-3 start, it tells you that they finished with a rush (4-2).

In last Friday's win Elba showed real pride and desire by coming back from a 21-0 halftime deficit to pull out the win in the season finale, the first to receive recognition must be quarterback - place kicker Russ Cash.

Russ trotted onto the field with only 35 left in the game and calmly booted a 19-yard field goal to give Elba their one-point victory. Despite being replaced as the Tigers' number one quarterback, Russ showed true team spirit by working overtime on his kicking talent, and became the team's number one place kicker. Many young men would quit, or become despondent after losing a starting position. But, Russ shrugged off the disappointment, and looked for a way to help his team. Well, Russ, you certainly helped your team! Good job!

Larry Phillips returned to form last week by rushing for 118 yards in 18 carries. Larry set up a Troy touchdown by fumbling a kick-off but more than made up for his fumble by returning a punt 87-yards for a score, and by gaining "big yardage in key situations. Larry's sophomore season certainly has people buzzing about what to expect from him in the future!

Max Fuller and Stan Lewis put on quite a show last week. The duo from "Sunset Boulevard" combined talents eight times for a total offensive output of 121 yards.

Max threw the ball real well throughout the game and came through with pinpoint passes in clutch situations on the Tigers' winning drive.

Stan proved that he is a definite college prospect by making his usual "Unbelievable" catches. Stan's catch with 3 Troy defenders hanging on kept Elba's winning drive alive. Stan, an All-SAC receiver, in '74, certainly had another good year in 1975.

David Smith is probably the Tigers' "most underrated" player. David has started for three years, and has improved from a gully, but mistake-prone sophomore, to a hard, hitting senior leader.

For the past two years, David has played both ways, at center, and at linebacker. David is only 5'10" and 180 pounds, but will butt heads with anybody and gives 100% at all times. Besides leading Elba in tackles for the past two years, David also called all defensive sets.

David is too small to play linebacker in college, but he can punt for any college team in the state! I hope David gets the chance to prove his punting ability.

I am not intentionally leaving out anyone or trying to say that the above mentioned players were the only ones worth mentioning. I'm simply praising players I felt had exceptional years!

Coach Johns Deserves Credit

Before the Board of Education goes out of town looking for a new football coach, I hope they take a look in their own back yard!

Coach Hinton Johns led the Tigers to a 4-2 record after taking over as head coach, and instilled a winning attitude into a team that was becoming used to losing.

After taking over, Coach Johns made some adjustments that turned things around. 1. Johns gave Max Fuller a vote of confidence by allowing the senior signal-caller to call some of his own plays. Fuller responded by improving drastically. 2. Johns began the policy of encouraging, not discouraging players after making mistakes. 3. Johns turned Elba into a winning team!

I feel that Coach Johns has proven himself as a head coach, and should be given a vote of confidence by being given a new contract as head coach.

I see several advantages in keeping Johns as head coach. 1. He knows the players' potential, and limitations. 2. He knows the players' moods, and can keep them from becoming down on themselves or big headed after good performances. 3. He knows what plays can and cannot work. 4. He has been here 3 years and knows which young players (subs and junior teamers) have the talent to move up and help the team. 5. And finally, Coach Johns has, on the respect of the players!

I hope the Board will act quickly and give Johns a vote of confidence so he can quit wondering about his future and start preparing for the 1976 season!

Elba is one of the youngest teams in this area and they have the talent to become one of the best. Elba's season ending victory will certainly help the coaches move into spring training with a winning attitude.

Elba has two players who have good chances of playing college ball, punter David Smith and wide receiver Stan Lewis. David's leg seems strong enough to kick for any college in this area. Stan has the hands and "definitely the enthusiasm to play wide receiver almost anywhere. I wish these two at all the other seniors the best of luck in any attempts at college careers.

CASH FIELD-GOAL LIFTS TIGERS OVER TROY 28-27

Larry Phillips (35) heads upfield for big gain after taking hand-off from Fuller (12).

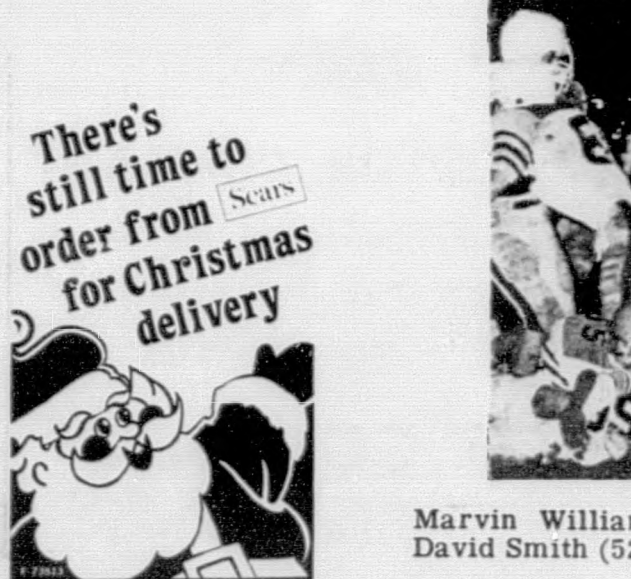

Basic, this is quite a game!

Troy's Greg Cardwell (15) is stopped by Elba's Shane Bullard (50) after short gain.

Steven Harrelson (37) is stopped after 9 yard gain.

Marvin Williams (32) is tackled by Elba's David Smith (52).

Elba received the second half kick and drove 61 yards in 5 plays to get on the board.

Jimmy Marson reversed for 3 yards on the drive's initial play, followed by runs of 8 and 6 yards by Win Westbrook and Larry Phillips. Max Fuller passed to Stan Lewis for a 14 yard pick-up on the next play, moving the ball to the Troy 31 yardline.

Fuller caught the Trojan secondary napping on the first down play and again hooked up with Lewis, this time for a 31 yard touchdown pass. Russ Cash booted the p.a. and with 5:55 left in the third quarter Elba was trailing 21-13 but were coming back.

The Tiger defense stopped Troy cold on their next possession, and were forced to punt.

Elba's 'flash' Larry Phillips fielded the ensuing kick on the next possession, and drove 42 yards before turning the ball over to Troy at the 33 yardline.

Elder gained three yards on Troy's initial play and on second down Marvin Williams burst through a gaping hole and raced 64 yards for another Trojan touchdown. Greg Cardwell danced over for the two point conversion and with only 45 seconds gone in the second quarter Troy had a 21-0 lead.

Neither team could move on their next offensive possession, and following an exchange of punts Elba put the ball in play at the Troy 27 yardline.

Troy penalized yards for pass interference on the initial play, and following two running plays Elba had a first down and goal at the Trojan 9 yardline.

However, the Tiger drive bogged down, and David Smith's 27 yard field goal attempt sailed wide, ending the threat.

The first half ended without further scoring, at half-time Troy held an unbelievable 21-0 lead.

Fuller refused to quit, however, and with the aid of two 15 yard touchdowns against Elba, drove 65 yards in 13 plays to take a 27-25 lead with only 5:33 left in the game. The Troy score came when Marvin Williams bulled over on fourth-down and goal from the 1 yardline. The Trojans attempted a two-point conversion again failed.

COACHES CORNER

"I'm sure that anybody who was there will tell you it was quite a game."

Those were the words of Elba coach Hinton Johns when asked about the Tigers 28-27 win over Troy.

"Defensively," said Johns, "we didn't play well in the first half, but I think their moving the ball so well was a combination of our breakdown on defense and their fine offense."

"We played good defense in the second half," continued Johns, "and if we hadn't had 30 yards in penalties on their TD drive they might not have scored."

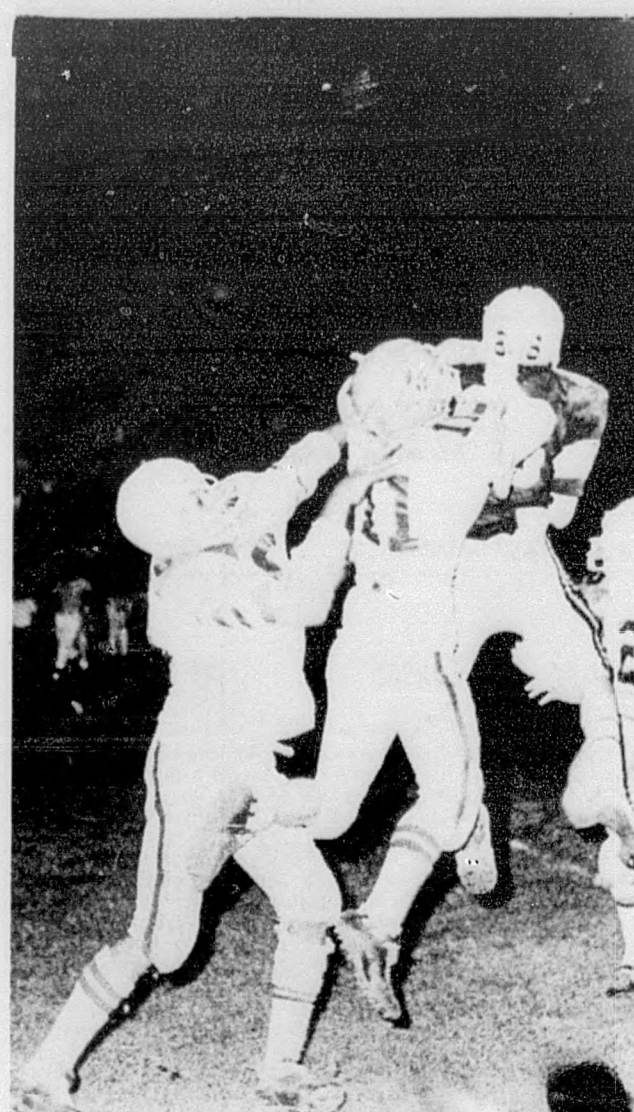

"O. negatively," remarked Johns, "we moved fairly well in the first half, but we didn't have the ball very much of the time."

"In the second half our offense played a good football game," said Johns. "Max Fuller threw the ball real well, and Stan Lewis caught the ball really well all night long."

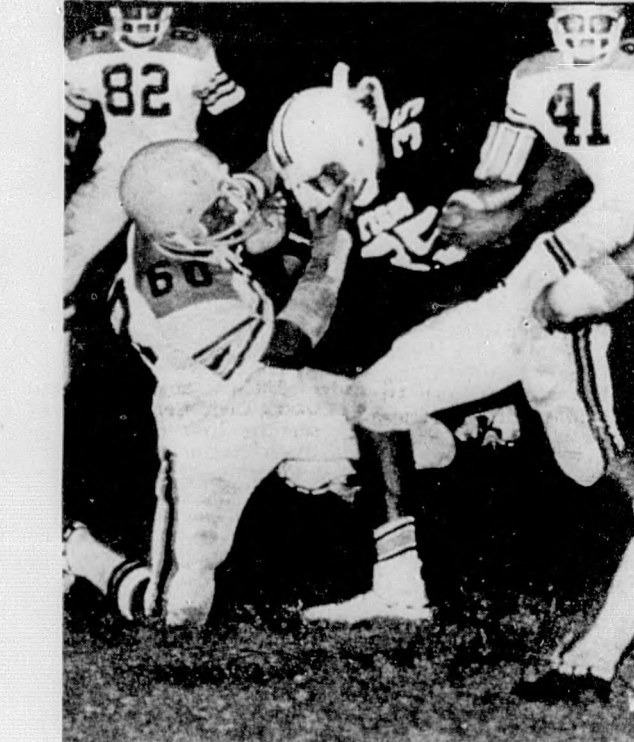

Johns praised the running of JAMES SMITH, LARRY PHILLIPS, WIN WESTBROOK and JOHNNY DYESS.

Johns added that "the entire offensive line played well in the second half."

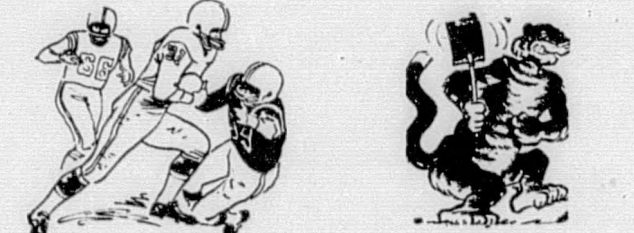

In closing Johns said, "I'm extremely proud of the way the players came back in the second half."

Stan Lewis (88) pulls in Fuller aerial despite efforts of Troy defenders.

Troy's Clarence Taylor (60) and Elba's Larry Phillips (35) meet face to face.

Troy's Greg Cardwell (15) is stopped by Elba's Shane Bullard (50) after short gain.

Stan Lewis (88) shows excitement after Phillips' td.

Marvin Williams (32) is tackled by Elba's David Smith (52).

Council Clears Air With Rescue Squad, Gives Raise To Firemen

BO DUNAWAY

The Elba City Council postponed several items of business Tuesday night due to a need for more information and a desire by several members to attend the Elba-New Brockton basketball game. The effort was in vain as other matters kept the group in session until after 10:00 p.m. The council was fairly filled as the meeting began, but as matters were discussed and settled, the group thinned to a point where the only persons present other than city officials were reporters from THE ELBA CLIPPER and THE DAILY LEDGER.

The only business taking place during this time was a vote not to sack the parking meters during December. During the past several years, the council has voted to sack the meters for this thirty-day period. Councilmen discussing the matter noted that in past years, they had received complaints from merchants and customers who couldn't find a place to park. Councilmen present all voted in favor of leaving the meters in operation. Councilman Ronnie Vaughan had been called to the local hospital to donate a pint of his rare blood and was not present for the vote. He noted on his return that he would have voted against the council action and against any thing favoring parking meters. The council postponed a discussion on the revenue and expenditures for the past year, hoping the official audit would be complete by the next meeting. A discussion on the extension of the Elba city limits was also tabled until the next meeting. Mr. James C. Harris, from the Alabama Office of Highway and Traffic Safety, and Rescue Squad Captain Bill Hurd met with the council and updated them on the operations of rescue squads in general, and particularly the Elba Rescue Squad. Hurd left with Harris and the discussion continued with several members of the rescue squad. Several members of the rescue squad had expressed the opinion that the city officials were dissatisfied with the rescue squad. This matter was immediately taken up with the council commending them for their work and offering any possible help. Dunaway reported to the council on the things needed in his department and the things accomplished. He also told of his efforts to get the skating rink operational and the possibility of getting several basketball teams organized.

City Clerk Jack Prescott read a resolution received from the local American Legion commending Dunaway for his efforts in maintaining the building at Legion Field. Fire Chief Charles Cox appealed to the council for help in paying for the twenty new radios the fire department members had purchased out of their own pockets. A lengthy discussion of the council voted a 75¢ per fire increase in the fireman's pay - from $5.00 to $5.75. Also the council voted to pay the repair cost on the fire chief's radio and purchase a new fireman's coat and hat for the chief.

The Pea River boat ramp was discussed with Prescott, Captain Bill Hurd reported expenses of $1,360.03. He said being moved by the rescue squad ever paid their bills. The rescue squad can't, at present, make a person pay twice could do this and also utilize the sand it removes. He said it would be a couple of weeks before this could be done.

Councilman Ben Carpenter made a motion that a report be made at each council meeting on any new employee hired and working for the city. This was quickly approved.

Councilman Charles Ellis made a motion to pay the current bills, totaling $7,000.00. This was quickly approved.
